Watching & waiting & watching & waiting for You, my king

Feet glowing bronze, face like the sun

Hair white as snow, You are my Lord

Watching & waiting & watching & waiting for You, my king

The return of the king of the kings

Seen by every eye

And the angels, they sing

Holy Holy, Jehovah, Almighty

Who was, and is, and is to come again

Who was, and is, and is to come again,

The great I am, we'll praise you day and night

(Chorus x2)
